CAPT. LEYHE PROMOTED.

The officers of the Leyhe compan elected at St. Louis are: Captain Wil liam Leyhe, president; T. T. Lewis vice president, and H. W. Leyhe, sec retary and treasurer. The only change in the corps of officers was that Cap tain H. W. Leyhe takes the office treasurer, which was formerly held by Captain G. W. Hill of Alton. RIVER RIPPLES.

Why is it that the hull and boiler inspectors of this district are located at Nashville, when over nine tenths of their business calls them to Paducah? It is truly strange, and the present condition necessitates a large amount of unnecessary expense. Paducah by all means should be the location for marine hall and boiler inspectors, those interested. Paducah would be selected as the port.

The Jim Wood arrived in Louisville yesterday with a portion of her tow from Cincinnati. She stranded her tow at Rising Sun bar, coming down Monday, and sunk three model barges loaded with steel rails and manufac tured iron.
